

Roadsides in Bloom 2015 Calendar
Photo Contest Winners:

COVER: Roger L. Kennedy Jr.
Black Eyed Susans along Flat Top Lake Rd, Raleigh County

JANUARY: Raymond R. Harr
Blooming dogwood along Co Rt 12, Troublesome Valley Road,
Pendleton County

FEBRUARY: Karen Russell Jones
“Weeds and Bees” growing along Shockey Drive, Cabell County

MARCH: Ann Walker
Honeysuckle brightens the way on Lobelia Road, Pocahontas
County

APRIL: Charles Bolt
Day Lilly growing on Lowell Back Road, Summers County

MAY: Barbara Engelhardt
Operation Wildflower Plot in St Albans, Kanawha County

JUNE: Matthew S. Marsh
Chicory blooming along Rt 93, Grant County

JULY: Lois Pigott
DOH Wildflower Plot along Rt 19 south of Summersville,
Nicholas County

AUGUST: Eugene Walker
The Fireweed grows among the moss along scenic Rt. 55,
Pocahontas County

SEPTEMBER: Margaret Hoogland
Joe-Pye Weed alongside Back Creek on Swinging Bridge Road,
Berkeley County

OCTOBER: Carletta Bolt
Spider flower and cat whiskers along Barger Springs Road,
Summers County

NOVEMBER: Patricia Moles
Wildflowers along the Highland Scenic Highway, Pocahontas
County

DECEMBER: Ed Rehbein
Bee Balm on Highland Scenic Highway, Pocahontas County